THURSDAY DECEMBER 28, 1871.

THE LOSS OF THE AMERICA.

Four days have elapsed since the loss of the America, and what steps has the Argentine Government taken in the matter? There is really nothing wanting to do to the tragedy save the escape of the guilty and the unrequital of the deserving. And shall this be the sequel of this awful catastrophe? We answer for the River Plate public, most emphatically, No!

Already individuals have stepped forward and done their part, as in the meeting of the passengers on board the Villa del Salto to reward Captain Morse. But besides rewarding the brave we must punish the guilty—and with one shout the public of Buenos Ayres demands the TRIAL of Bossi.

This man must be tried, and tried for his life, which after all is too poor, too miserable for public revenge. We care nothing for his pleas or manifestoes—guilty or innocent, he was the Captain of the disaster, and must be tried, and the conduct of the Argentine Government in allowing 96 hours to elapse since the tragedy without demanding from the commander of the Italian gunboat his extradition is so consuable, that we almost begin to think he will escape in time.

Let no man plead the Italian flag or the privilege of a war vessel. The Italian commander on the Station will have too much honor to allow his ship to be an asylum in such a case, and the demand of the Argentine Government for his arrest and trial will be sufficient for the Italian Commander to hand Bossi over to the regularly constituted tribunals of the country for trial. The fearful details of this dreadful catastrophe are known to us all.

We doubt if there is to be found in this city a man with a forehead to defend Bossi; but nevertheless, whatever defence he can make, let him make it by all means—but make it in the regular way, not in specious telegrams or manifestoes which cost but the printing to publish; but let him be placed in the felon's dock to answer to the outraged community for the lives of 129 of our fellow beings.

The charge is so terrible, public feeling so incensed, that we may look upon his punishment as certain. Fear that he was to have survived his fate:

he should have gone down in his doomed steamer—we could have well survived the loss, but we cannot stomach his impunity. The cup is filled, and if there is a spark of justice in the community, then must he drink it to the dregs.

Yet, piercing the lamentable cloud of human agony, ineffectual devotion, piety, fear, hope, and even crime, that yet been washed ashore there.

THE BILLINGHURST BANQUET

ARGENTINE TRAMWAY COMPANY.

London, Nov. 19.

Last evening, at the invitation of Mr. John Wanklyn, about forty gentlemen assembled at Richardson's Hotel,

Covent Garden, to celebrate the transfer to an English company of Mr. Billinghurst's Tramway, and to do honor to Don Mariano Billinghurst himself, who is on the eve of departing for Madrid, en route for Lisbon, where he will embark for Buenos Ayres, probably in the Pacific steamer which leaves Liverpool on the 29th.

The banquet was creditable to the kitchen and cellar of the Hotel.

The dinner was not "à la Russe," but strictly "à l'Anglaise." The "carte" was written necessarily in the French language, but the turtle-soup tasted as excellent by any other name. The substantial—even ponderous—dishes that came forth slowly were rapidly unfiled, but again slowly removed.

The guests sat down at 7.30, and it was quite 10.30 before the first toast of the evening was proposed. On the right of Mr. Wanklyn sat Don Mariano Billinghurst, by whom the Argentine Tramway moved and had its being. His open and venerable countenance reminded one of the central

d'œuvre." On the left of the chairman was Mr. Hoare, junr., representing the banking interest. His place at a later hour in the evening was filled by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, Lord Alfred Paget, who, with one of the directors, Mr. John Reynolds, joined the party at dessert. The musical interest—so music is as essential as eating and drinking to the success of a great commercial undertaking—was ably represented by the veteran composer Wrighton, good, genial, domestic, and sympathetic as his ballads, which pierce the metallic lining of a financier's heart, and bring tears to the eyes of a stockbroker.

SAVINGS BANK

BANK MAUA AND Co.

101-Calle Cangallo-103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Maua & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sum deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of working men, working men, and servants of all classes, and conditions, who are equally interested in placing their savings at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in dissipation, gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Maua & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nineteen till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already named. Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Maua & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and most prudent principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Maua & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render enormous service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P. P. MAUA & Co.,

M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent (6 p. c.) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time receive the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and recovering the loss in the public newspapers.
